ANNUAL CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN, 2018

Next weekend, our Parish is delighted to be supporting the Annual Catholic Campaign. It is the one time a year that all the parishes in the Archdiocese come together to help vital works of our church and local community. Although we have advertised the campaign in our parish newsletter over the last five weeks, we have not spoken much about it at our weekend Masses.

In place of our homily during Masses next weekend, we will be watching a DVD of the Archbishop of Brisbane, Mark Coleridge as he preaches and encourages us to adequately participate in this year's campaign. As with previous years, we will encourage parishioners who do not have much money on them at Masses and those who have not decided on their level of contribution, to go home with their envelopes and candidly return them with their contributions the next weekend.

Funds raised will support ministries that directly impact this parish. The Campaign supports training for future priests, caring for elderly priests when they are no longer able to serve our parish, helping families access Catholic education and caring for those suffering physically and emotionally in our local community.

Please, feel free to commit to long term or periodic giving if you are comfortable with it otherwise you can make a one off contribution. However, remember to indicate the name of our parish so that your offerings will be counted to the name of our parish. If you have any concerns regarding this campaign, feel free to contact our parish office.

Finally, we thank Doug Miller for once again accepting to co-ordinate this year's campaign in our Parish.

God Bless,

Fr Emmanuel

BOOK WEEK/FAIR 2018

Our Book week parade was held last Friday. Mrs Anni Gold and Mrs Margaret Milligan worked very hard with the students in preparation for this parade. Thank you to them and students who assisted with the parade and a big thank you to families for the time they dedicated to ensuring their child/ren were dressed up for our parade. This week we will be holding our Book Fair in the library and families are very welcome to visit the library throughout this week and purchase resources.
