A Thought From Fr Emmanuel

Saint Mary of the Cross MacKillop

Feast on 8th August

Mary MacKillop was born in Melbourne in 1842. Mary, the eldest of eight children, was raised in the working-class Melbourne suburb of Fitzroy.

At 16, Mary went out to work, to support her younger brothers and sisters. Two years later she took a job as a governess on her uncle's farm in the small country town of Penola in South Australia. Together, Mary and Father Woods opened the first free Catholic school in Penola in 1866.

A year later the pair formed a new religious order of nuns - the Sisters of St Joseph - devoted to teaching the poor. The Sisters of St Joseph was the first Catholic order founded by an Australian. Mary MacKillop and the sisters founded hospitals and orphanages, as well as providing shelters for the homeless, former prostitutes and unmarried mothers. And they raised all of the money themselves - mostly by begging. Mary suffered a stroke in 1902 and after seven years of heroic suffering died on August 8, 1909.

Mary was buried in Sydney's historic Gore Hill Cemetery. Five years after her death, her body was transferred to the newly built Mary MacKillop Chapel in the grounds of the North Sydney convent where she last lived.

In June 1995 MacKillop was beatified by Pope John Paul II. In February 2010, after evaluating the testimony of an Australian woman who claimed that her terminal cancer had disappeared after she called upon MacKillop in prayer Pope Benedict XVI recognized MacKillop as a saint and canonized her on 17 October 2010, Vatican City.

Ministry to Seafarers

A great volunteering in ministry opportunity exists with Centacare Pastoral Ministries at the Stella Maris Seafarers Centre in Wynnum

The Apostleship of the Sea is a worldwide Catholic ministry which has been supporting seafarers and fishers for almost 100 years. At the Port of Brisbane, the Archdiocese provides a ministry to seafarers to transport them from their berths to the seafarers' centre in Wynnum. Providing transport for the seafarers to enjoy some shore time is critical to their wellbeing and quality of life. Whilst ashore they can exchange money, shop for personal needs, have quiet time, communicate with home for free on the Stella Maris computers, and receive pastoral and spiritual support.

A daytime volunteer is required for 2-4 hours from 10am each weekday to use the Stella Maris vehicles to collect the seafarers from their vessels and deliver them to the Centre.

A welcoming disposition, a current C class licence, an ability to commit to a team roster once per week and preparedness to undergo all Archdiocesan Safeguarding screening requirements are needed for this volunteering ministry role.

A Stewardship Moment

August 4, 2019
18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." (Luke 12:15)

The Gospel message today is contrary to our modern culture where advertising continually tries to convince us that our value lies in the things we possess. Jesus showed us that our true value lies in the way we live our lives. He challenges us to not hoard material possessions, but rather to live a grateful and generous lifestyle and become more "other-centered" and less "self-centered."
