YEAR of SAINT JOSEPH

"Show yourself a father, and guide us in the path of life"

DECEMBER 8, 2020 - DECEMBER 8, 2021

Scripture Reflection

'They too will listen to my voice ...'

This Sunday we are invited to deepen our awareness of the protective, caring love that surrounds us, holds us and sustains us. This love was made incarnate in Jesus the Good Shepherd.

In John's letter (Second Reading), we are encouraged to meditate on the deep love that the Father lavishes upon us, by calling us his children.

Centring our lives on this reality will help us on our pilgrim journey – and this week's Psalm is associated with pilgrimage, sung by those entering Jerusalem. For us it becomes a resurrection song. The one who was reviled and rejected becomes the cornerstone that our faith is built upon; Christ is our refuge and our strength, and the psalmist reminds us to place our trust in our loving Lord.

In the First Reading, Peter, inspired by the Holy Spirit, quotes from this same psalm. Christ, who was rejected and condemned by the religious leaders of the time, is the source of Peter's authority and his gift of healing.

In the Gospel, the image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd is used to draw out the depth of the love that God has for his people. Jesus lays down his life for us so that we might truly live. By describing himself in this way, Jesus is describing the close, intimate relationship we are each called to have with the living Lord. Although we are many, we are one flock, with one Shepherd who knows each one of us personally. Jesus trusts that we will listen to his voice.

As we pray this week, let us ask for the grace to truly listen with open and accepting hearts to the needs of our community, and to the needs of the earth. May we, too, may become loving shepherds to each other, and to the environment.

To the people of St Anthony & St Luke's Catholic Parish

HOW WOULD YOU ENLIVEN AND GROW YOUR ALREADY WONDERFUL COMMUNITY?

Each of us has a Baptismal responsibility to serve the people of God.

We don't come to Mass because God needs us!

We come to Mass because we are the Body of Christ,

Baptised in the Spirit of God and called to serve. How can you serve your community?

We are in URGENT need of Readers/Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMCs), Sacristans, Communion to the Sick, Musicians/Cantors, Cleaners, Church Environment, Prayer Circle.

PLEASE FILL IN THE FORM AT THE FRONT OF EACH CHURCH AND PLACE IN THE BOX.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

Many times we have noticed adults carrying out their parental duties and accompanying their children in their spiritual practices.

We also note that many of our parents are either not Baptised and if they are, do not take Communion, due to not being of our Catholic Christian tradition.

Often adults accompany their spouses, sometimes for many, many years, attending Mass and part of the community yet not baptised or a Catholic. Sometimes Catholics get bad press for all sort of reasons. Now is your chance to ask those bugging questions that you've been wondering about for a long time!

We are offering a journey in faith for all who would like to find out more about our Baptismal call to living in, and being the Body of Christ.

In John's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that He has come so that we:

"may have life and have it more abundantly."

If you feel you would like to know more, we invite you to come along to an informal meeting on Tuesday 25th May, at 7.00 pm in the Parish Meeting Room at Alexandra Hills.

Ladies Group

We need more WOOL

42 rugs have been gifted to patients in BIRU and GARU at Princess Alexandra Hospital in the first 3 months of 2021 so it is not surprising that the knitting ladies are out of wool again!

Donations of yarn (preferably 8ply) are always appreciated and can be left at either church or the parish office.

(That's 2873 rugs since this project began 22 years ago!)

The Ladies Group is holding a

Mothers Day Stall

following all Masses next weekend, 1st and 2nd May.

A variety of gifts and plants will be available as well as Raffle tickets.

Cash only please.

Lots of hand-made bargains available!

All proceeds will support the work of St Vincent De Paul in our community.

A Stewardship Moment

April 25, 2021

4th Sunday of Easter

"I am the good shepherd...and I lay down my life for the sheep...and they will heed my voice."

JOHN 10:14-16

When you pray, do you only ask Jesus for the things that you want? Do you ever ask Him what He wants from you? How do you listen for His response? Many times Jesus responds in "quiet whispers" that are not so obvious. So, take time every day, in silence, to actively listen for His voice.
