12/13 March 2022 2nd Sunday of Lent Yr C

Dear Sisters and brothers,

The Gospels present a number of events, where the divinity of Jesus is revealed to the world. The Transfiguration of Christ was an event that left the apostles deeply moved for its clear revelation of the divinity of Christ as they were being prepared to face the scandal of their Lord being betrayed and undergoing his passion and death.

What is the meaning of this event in the life of Christ and his apostles? First and foremost is the glimpse and assurance the apostles are given that their Master is indeed more than a mere human, in fact he is the Son of God, and therefore the way, the truth and the life for them and all followers of Christ.

Secondly, the Transfiguration carries with it the conviction that Christ will return in glory, just as he promised, with saving power for all who put their trust in him. Thirdly, the Transfiguration is an encouragement that even though the Lord would undergo rejection and death, that is not the end, but the way to resurrection and bestowal of eternal life on the world.

The appearance of Moses and Elijah at the Transfiguration, representing and summing up all of the law and the prophets of the old covenant, are reminders to followers of Christ that the Lord is the fulfillment of all that was taught and prophesied in the past.

"Master, how wonderful it is for us to be here," was the exclamation of Saint Peter. This is the sentiment of anyone who really meet Christ in their lives. The disciples were so happy and wished they could stay there forever. The history of humankind is the story of the search for meaning and happiness. It is also the story of trial and error, success and failure, sinfulness and repentance and ultimately forgiveness from God.

Christ is our happiness, One, transfigured in splendor on the mountaintop, but also washing the feet of his disciples, eating with the poor and sinners, healing the sick and the broken.

We are heirs of the promise to Abram and we are witnesses to the accounts of the Baptism and the Transfiguration. God promises us that in relationship with Him we also will be transformed. How good it is to stay in the love and presence of God!

Lord's Blessings, Fr Regi

Welcome!

RCIA CANDIDATE WELCOME

Dear parishioners, we ask you to pray for and welcome Alexander [Alex] Kay, who is discerning acceptance into the Catholic faith. We will celebrate the Rite of Welcome during the 9.00 am Mass this weekend.

Calling ALL who minister or serve at Mass

Sacristans / Communion Ministers / Readers / Musicians & Singers / Ushers / Hospitality /

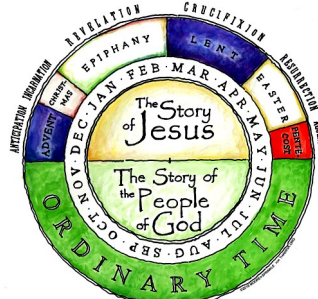

As we are again, going through a change of what we need to do, and how we need to do it as Sacristans, Liturgists, Readers, Communion Ministers, Marshals, Musicians, Singers and all who contribute to the celebration of the Mass on Weekends and during the week. But will we go back to the old way?

It is very timely for us all to get together with Fr Regi and reflect on the changes we need to come back to full and active participation in our Liturgies.

It is critical we do this in a calm and purposeful way, instead of reacting anxiously and in fear, as we have had to in the last 2 years.

ALL are invited, each and everyone of you, to an evening to Review & Get together on Wednesday 16th March at 7.00 pm in St Anthony's Church.

In the meantime, may I invite you to be truly 'mindful' of words and 'actions' as we go about our ministry each week. I know many of you do this already but as we have been through all the changes it is good for us to reflect on what we do and why and how we do it now.

Easter Music Practice

All musicians and singers, old and young,
and everyone in between,
Please come to the Easter Music Practice
