13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners and visitors,

Jesus continues his journey to Jerusalem, that will end with the sacrifice of salvation, which is the challenge and way before the disciple.

The Samaritan village is not willing to receive Jesus because he is going to Jerusalem. There was hostility between Samaritans who worshiped on Mount Gerizim and Jews who worshiped in Jerusalem. James and John want to call down fire from heaven to destroy the people and make way for Jesus, but Jesus rebukes them and moves on.

Intolerance is growing in the world. Elimination of the opposing ideologies and people is accepted as an easy solution to many problems, which again will end up in the survival of the fittest. But we must wide open our eyes to the reality. People around me may think differently. My neighbours may stand up for a different ideology. My own family members may wake up with a different faith and values. My own very self may struggle with my high expectations and the reality on the ground.

There is often the temptation to use violence to achieve right. Jesus has come to break this temptation. Violence has no place in Christ and in true discipleship. The three people who are called and who volunteer to become disciples on this journey show that they do not understand the demands of the life of the disciple.

Jesus challenges the one, who would go wherever Jesus goes, that animals in the wild have more security than do Jesus and his followers. The second one, who wants to bury a parent, is reminded that the demands of proclaiming the Kingdom of God take precedence. And another one, who wants to say farewell to his family, is reminded that once you put your hand to the plough you cannot look back.

The Gospel has several stories of "calling" and each one is a bit different and interesting. Jesus calls and most are willing to go with Him, but sometimes with conditions. Jesus wants His call to be accepted without any conditions but love.

We are all called, each one differently. Let us respond to the call, even if we fail many times.

Lord's blessings, Fr Regi
