18 JUNE 2023

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners and visitors,

The situation of the crowd in the gospel, is no different from the situation of millions of people all over the world today, who constantly face harassment and helplessness.
Jesus saw the massive crowd approaching and his heart was moved with compassion.

Jesus saw all of these and referred to it as harvest and at the same time noted that this particular harvest lacks sufficient labourers. All the readings remind us the care of compassion of God at different times.

Book of exodus presents God talking to Moses, "Remind the people of my care for them, how I bore up the People of Israel on eagle's wings and brought you here to myself. Then Paul reminds the Romans of God's special care for his people when he tells them and us that Jesus died for us, so that we might be reconciled with God. The Gospel reading presents the Lord filled with grief when he saw how much the crowds need him and how few people there were to continue his work.

Jesus then begins the Apostolic Church. He calls the Twelve apostles to carry his presence to the world. They are chosen by name and vocation, who are called to continue Jesus' own ministry of teaching, preaching, and healing.

Just look at the makeup of the twelve: the "first" apostle Peter will deny the Lord three times and the last apostle Judas will betray him to death, while two apostles in between held opposite positions on the Roman occupation, as tax collector Matthew worked for them, while Simon the "zealot" worked against them. Ordinary people gathered from different walks of life to speak and work for God. They were not perfect but they were elected by God.

God works and often through different people, picked by God himself. We are all chosen by God and each time we feel a push deep down within our heart to do a good deed, to visit the sick, to help the poor, to clothe the naked, to forgive and bring healing, God is inviting us to labour for Him. Through the virtue of our baptism we share in the life and works of God.

There is always the temptation to turn down God's invitation because we feel overwhelmed like one trying to empty an ocean with a cup. Humankind's problems are too many but then, for failing to do the little we can, we contribute further to the shortage of labourers in this ever rich harvest.

We are all invited and the discipleship involves mission. The disciples' mission continues that of Jesus in preaching the coming of the Reign of God and bringing the Physical, emotional and spiritual healing. As Jesus calls and gifts us freely, the gifts we have received are to be given freely.

Lord's Blessings, Fr Regi
