A Stewardship Moment: "As the Lord spoke to me, the spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me, 'Son of man, I am sending you...'"

Ezekiel 2:2-3

God asks each of us to do some special work for Him. He gives us the resources we need to do His work. However, do we listen to God when He calls? Do we get up on our feet and use our talent to do the work He asks of us? Remember, God doesn't call the equipped, he equips the called.

Parish Office Closed 10th-13th July

The parish office will be closed next week, to enable our Parish's maximum participation at the Proclaim Conference. The office will re-open as usual on Tuesday 17th July.

READINGS FOR THE FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

1ST READING (Ezekiel 2:2-5)

The people are rebellious; they shall know there will be a prophet in their midst.

RESPONSE: Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

2ND READING (Corinthians 12:7-10)

I will glory in my infirmities so that the power of Christ may dwell in me..

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

The spirit of the Lord is upon me: he sent me to bring Good News to the poor.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL (Mark 6:1-6)

A prophet is despised only in his own country.

SPECIAL SACRAMENTAL PROGRAM FOR ADULTS

The Catholic Church, as most of us already know, places lots of emphasis on sacraments, which also means a lot to her members. Most Catholics usually long to receive whatever sacrament that they are due for at any moment. Though the benefits of these sacraments are hardly visible to the eyes, the roles they play in our spiritual lives are surely very important. They are the signs and instruments of God's love and grace towards us, his children for the salvation of our souls. As such, receiving any of the sacraments is not merely ticking the box or "getting it done." On the other hand, the sacraments help us to become more connected to God and provides us with God's gift of salvation.

In light of this, we invite adults in our parish who have not received any of the three sacraments of initiation, namely, baptism, Confirmation and the Holy Eucharist to contact the parish office. We have fashioned some sacramental programs to softly but adequately help such parishioners to celebrate whatever sacraments of initiation they need. A baptized Catholic who missed either Confirmation or First Holy Eucharist in his or her younger days does not necessarily need the full RCIA program, though it could help if the person does. Even an unbaptized who attends Masses quite regularly can also go through an abridged form of the RCIA program.

Working with the Archdiocese, we also help parishioners who celebrated their marriage only in the civil form to have such ratified and recognized by the Church without any need for a second or a "church" marriage. However, the procedure for this is much easier if the marriage does not have any impediment. The most common impediment these days is the "impediment of an existing marriage" (mainly divorce without nullification). This too, can receive ratification but only on a case by case basis.

God Bless,

Fr Emmanuel
